BEN AND LAUREN: FALLING APART

Working the crowd at the Jan. 2 Bachelor charity premiere sponsored by FabFitFun, Ben Higgins and Lauren Bushnell seemed more like distant acquaintances than a happily engaged couple. "They were super-disconnected," says an eyewitness. "They posed for photos, but the second they were done they split up and didn't even look at each other. They even entered the venue through two different doors!" Ben, 28, and Lauren, 26, had tried to keep fame going with their reality show, Ben & Lauren: Happily Ever After?, but there are no plans for a second season so far. And as for their wedding, Ben tells Life & Style, "Do we have something officially planned? We don't."

Happily together for seven months!

CARLY AND EVAN TALK WEDDING

Bachelor in Paradise is long over, but the magic between engaged duo Carly Waddell and Evan Bass is stronger than ever. "We have so much freakin' fun," Evan, who has been living with Carly in Nashville for the past few months, tells Life & Style. "We are just really in love. Love carries you through it all." Soon it will carry them down the aisle. "We are getting married this year," reveals Evan, 34, who recently enjoyed a getaway with Carly at the romantic Shore Hotel in Santa Monica. So will the affair be televised? Carly, 29, says she's "not opposed" to it: "We are considering everything!"

KAITLYN'S GOT A NEW FACE!

It's been 20 months since Bachelorette Kaitlyn Bristowe, 31, dumped Nick for now-fiancé Shawn Booth. But she's still making headlines – this time for the dramatically different look she recently showed off on Instagram. Dermatologist Gary Goldenberg of New York's Mount Sinai Hospital sees signs of cheek fillers, skin tightening, lip plumpers, Botox and even a nonsurgical neck- and chin-lift. "The quality of Kaitlyn's skin also appears better," notes Dr. Goldenberg. "That could have been achieved with lasers or microneedling."
